Communication Is a Two-Way Street

Of top significance to today's Americans is an announcement by Tom Murray, who runs a private mail delivery service from Oklahoma City that he will begin free delivery of letters sent to congressmen.

Noting that congressmen have a franking privilege while private citizens have to pay postage when they write their congressmen, Murray said: "It is more important for the people to contact congressmen than for the congressmen to write to the people."

This is a rare recognition of the fact that under modern American government there is a definite trend to glorify the officeholder and belittle the untitled private citizen. The same candidate who proclaimed he was just another private citizen while seeking your vote in the campaign no sooner gets elected but he latches onto all the growing fringe benefits of holding public office. The free mail—or franking—privilege is a case in point.

It developed years ago when communication between Washington and the people was slow and uncertain. But it is a privilege fiercely defended today when fast press wires, radio, and television report to the nation even before a congressman can get his newsletter in the mails. If this favoritism to lawmakers is to be tolerated then there is merit in Oklahoma Murray's proposal that mail from his constituents to their congressman ought also to be handled free.

To Search for Bodies at Cummins

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP) — A former Cummins Prison Farm inmate turned author says he will return to Arkansas to search for "bodies of murdered men in unmarked graves" at Cummins.

J. Wyman Keith, author of the book, "Long Line Rider," made the statement. Keith, whose real name is Leonard Claude Bowen, said in his book that one day he would return to Cummins to dig for bodies. There was a national furor in January 1968 when former Prison Supt. Thomas O. Murton unearthed the graves of three persons he said were murdered inmates. An investigation indicated that the graves were part of a pauper's cemetery and not those of murdered inmates.

Keith, who now lives in Rockford, Ill., said in a prepared statement that he expected to "receive full support as well as the needed proper legal permission" for his undertaking.

No Action on Women's Reformatory

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — Nine Little Rock residents Saturday urged the state Board of Correction to locate a women's reformatory in their neighborhood, but the board took no action.

The nine live near the Arkansas School for the Deaf facility that has been proposed as a new site for the women's reformatory.

The present reformatory, which is old and worn, is located in the confines of Cummins Prison Farm. The board has agreed to use the Deaf School facility as a new reformatory if certain conditions are met.

Nathaniel Hill of Little Rock, spokesman for the delegation, said that property values in the neighborhood would decline if the reformatory was located near their homes. Hill, a Negro, also maintained that the most affluent residents of the area would move away if the facility became a women's reformatory, turning the neighborhood into a low-income area which would be predominantly or totally black.

Meany Would Freeze Wages and Prices

By DON McLEOD
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany says if he were in President Nixon's shoes he would impose wage and price controls in the fight against inflation.

"I don't see any other way that this situation is going to get under control," Meany said Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press."

Meany said his own 13.5-million-member labor organization is "not advocating controls," but would not oppose them if they were imposed evenly.

"If he makes a decision that the international situation is such, or the domestic situation is such that he needs to impose controls, we have said time and time again ... we are saying it now that we will go along," Meany said. "We will accept wage and price controls provided they are shared equally to cover all forms of income and ... provided the sacrifice is equal to everybody concerned."

Meany said the "inflationary psychology" has an "inflationary psychology."

"We have people raising prices when there is just no reason," he said. According to the book, when you cause more unemployment, when you tighten up on the money supply and you keep business from expanding and thereby cause more and more people to become unemployed, prices should come down according to the rules."

But, Meany said, prices have gone up, by 4.2 per cent in 1968, 5.4 per cent in 1969 and 5.9 per cent in 1970.

In this situation it would seem that the answer from the President's point of view would be controls. "I don't see any other answer," he said.

Meany, in a speech today opening the AFL-CIO Conference on Jobs, said Treasury Secretary John B. Connally lacks confidence in America and doesn't understand problems of American workers.

Of Connally, recently designated by Nixon as the administration's chief economic spokesman, Meany said:

"He is a proven expert at Texas politics, and knows quite a bit about the oil companies and what they want. 'I'm not sure he knows much about the national economy, and I am certain he doesn't understand the problems of American workers.'"

Committee Presses for a Review of Federal Criminal Sentences

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Key Senate Judiciary Committee members, noting jail terms for the same crime vary as much as 300 per cent from one judge to another, are pressing a bill allowing review of federal criminal sentences.

"Where the same crime has been committed by similar offenders under similar circumstances, the punishment should be reasonably uniform," said Sen. Roman Hruska of Nebraska, key Republican on Judiciary, in explaining the bill.

Hruska cited a study showing a bank robber convicted in one U.S. District Court can expect a 68-month sentence, while in another his term likely would be 184 months—three times as long. The average is 140 months.

Within minimum and maximum limits set by law, a federal trial judge has total discretion in sentence. There is no appeal from the sentence, even though a higher court can reverse or set aside a conviction. Hruska said the bill would correct "one of the greatest single injustices existing in our federal criminal process today: the lack of authority and machinery to review unreasonable sentences."

Under the proposed legislation, a defendant could appeal his sentence. A court of appeals, if it agreed to review a sentence, could lower but not increase it.

Burglars Hit Alexander

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Bill Alexander, D-Ark., said Sunday that his home at McLean, Va., had been burglarized sometime during the weekend.

Alexander, who has been in Arkansas for the past week, said he was informed of the incident early Sunday by a neighbor.

Chile Will Take Over Copper Firms

By WILLIAM F. NICHOLSON
Associated Press Writer
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — President Salvador Allende is expected to sign the constitutional amendment to complete nationalization of Chile's copper industry despite his complaint that it gives the U.S. companies too many breaks.

Meeting in joint session Sunday night, 158 of the 200 senators and deputies in Congress unanimously approved the amendment without debate. The vote came after a festive "National Dignity Day," ordered by the government to celebrate the nationalization.

The government bought part of the Chilean holdings of the three U.S. companies—Anaconda, Kennecott and Cerro—during the administration of President Eduardo Frei, and completion of the nationalization is a cornerstone of Allende's program to "open the doors to socialism in Chile."

Estimates of the investment by the three companies in Chile's five biggest mines range from $300 million to $800 million. There is no estimate of how much they have profited, but the five mines last year produced 85,000 tons of metal worth more than $1 billion. Copper is Chile's most important resource and produces 80 per cent of the country's foreign exchange.

Allende in a heated 90-minute speech Sunday in Rancagua, 55 miles south of Santiago, accused the U.S. companies of allowing the mines to get in an "alarming state."

He said recent surveys by French and Russian mining experts confirmed this. He also said the studies demonstrated that the companies did not use efficient management techniques in operating the mines.

He singled out Anaconda and Kennecott for making "fabulous sums" in Chile while allowing their mines to deteriorate.

He cited statistics on average sentences imposed by district courts for seven types of federal crimes, in which there were 25 or more convictions in each category during the 1970 fiscal year.

The average sentence for all felony convictions, for example, was 33 months, with a range between 26 months and 52 months.

Figures on sentences for other crimes showed similar disparities between districts. While differences in defendants and circumstances provide valid reasons for variations in sentences in some cases, Hruska told the Senate, "disparities based solely upon the personality of the judge passing sentence are unjust."

Hruska said one result of the inability to have a higher court review a sentence is that "harsh and irrational sentences have often led appeal courts to reverse convictions on technical or minor points and on strained interpretations of the law, interpretations which ill serve justice and society in future cases."

Under the proposed legislation, a defendant could appeal his sentence. A court of appeals, if it agreed to review a sentence, could lower but not increase it.

Papers Reveal Peace Talks Anticipated at Least 3 Years Ago

By SPENCER DAVIS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Viet Cong conditions for a Vietnam war settlement now being explored by U.S. negotiators in Paris were anticipated almost 3½ years ago in a confidential U.S. Central Intelligence Agency report.

"In talks, Communist terms would involve the establishment of a new 'coalition' government which would in fact, if not in appearance, be under the domination of the Communists," said a CIA assessment intended for President Lyndon B. Johnson that never reached him.

"Secondly, they would insist on a guaranteed withdrawal of U.S. forces within some precisely defined period," the assessment said.

Both conditions are part of a Vietnamese Communist proposal announced in Paris July 1.

The assessment added that cessation of U.S. bombing of North Vietnam and the start of peace negotiations without significant Communist concessions would create "a real risk that the Thieu-Ky regime would collapse, and this would in fact be part of Hanoi's calculations."

The assessment was disclosed in Pentagon papers released by Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska.

Differing from State and Defense department recommendations, the CIA estimates were at times ignored. In this case, the CIA estimate never reached Johnson who had ordered a comprehensive reassessment of U.S. policy after the surprise Communist Tet offensive of February 1968.

The papers disclose another CIA contribution to the policy review was a report from an unidentified "high-level defector" who said Soviet aid to North Vietnam would be stepped up during 1968.

The report said the defector "confirms intelligence estimates that the USSR has not been able to use its aid program as a means of influencing North Vietnam's conduct of the war. In his opinion, the Chinese are a more influential power."

The defector, evidently a Russian, reported the Soviet Union would use force to maintain access to the major North Vietnam port of Haiphong. The bombing of Haiphong, where 80 per cent of the war supplies for Hanoi were received, was then under top-level consideration.

When the White House in early 1965 was about to permit American forces in Vietnam to take an active combat role, the Pentagon study discloses, a memo from CIA director John A. McCone to Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and White House adviser McGeorge Bundy said in part:

"The decision to change the mission of our ground forces from one of advice and static defense to one of active combat operations ... is correct only if our air strikes against the North are sufficiently heavy and damaging really to hurt the North Vietnamese."

SWPCO
Says Arkla Is to Blame
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Southwestern Electric Power Co. says Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. will be to blame if SWPCO is to curtail its supply of electricity to any Arkansas customers.

SWPCO made the statement in a half-page advertisement in Saturday's Northwest Arkansas Times.

"SWPCO assures its Arkansas customers that there will be no failure on the part of SWPCO to supply all their requirements of electricity if Arkla will live up to the solemn obligations of its contracts with SWPCO," the ad said.

The state Public Service Commission is considering the possibility of voiding Arkla's long-term contracts with its industrial customers and having the parties renegotiate the contracts.

River Bridge Dedicated
DUMAS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Saturday that the Arkansas Highway 1 bridge over the Arkansas River near Dumas was a "milestone in the growth" of the area.

Bumpers made the remarks during the dedication of the $3.8 million bridge. The bridge was opened for traffic in May, replacing the Pendleton Ferry.

The new Miss Arkansas will be crowned Saturday night. She will succeed Donna Jo Connolly of Hope, who won the title last year while representing State College of Arkansas.

U.S. Prepares to Hit Cong Supply Lanes

WASHINGTON (AP) — While reducing forces in Vietnam, the United States is preparing to add more gunships in Thailand for the next hunting season against Communist supply routes in Laos.

The plans, involving a $56-million modification program, indicate U.S. airpower may be operating against the Ho Chi Minh trail well after the bulk of American troops are out of the war in Vietnam.

Millwood Plans Are Discussed

"I'm going to retire at the end of this month, so I'm going to be frank with you. I'm tired of your four counties scrapping," said Col. Vernon Pinkey to residents of the four counties which border on Millwood Lake. Col. Pinkey made the statement at a public meeting held Friday night at the Hempstead County Court House. The four counties Col. Pinkey was referring to are: Hempstead, Little River, Sevier, and Howard.

Rep. John Paul Ham-merschmidt requested the meeting and said in a prepared statement, "I am hopeful this meeting will provide concerned citizens a forum to discuss the various problems connected with expanding public recreational facilities at Millwood Reservoir."

Col. Pinkey, who is with the Tulsa Division of the Army Corps of Engineers, told the crowd of about 100 that the Corps had a federally approved plan for approving recreational facilities at Millwood. The plan will cost $4,750,000 and will include campsites, boatramps, and picnic sites at existing recreational sites on the lake.

The federal government will pay for expansion of existing sites till 1980. After that time the "cost sharing" plan will go into effect. "Cost Sharing" means that the state and local governments make commitments with the federal government.

Pinkey has $75,000 available for immediate use. It will be used to add facilities at Saratoga Landing, Paraloma Landing, and Beard's Bluff.

At Saratoga Landing a double concrete boatramp, a .3 mile road, a well and water system, and ten concrete tables and fireplaces will be built.

Pressure Leak Killed Cosmonauts

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government announced today that a pressure leak killed the three Soyuz 11 cosmonauts half an hour before their landing June 30 and indicated human error rather than a fault in their spaceship was responsible.

"An inspection of the descent vehicle, which made a soft landing, showed that there are no failures in its structure," said the report by the investigating commission. It said it was making a further analysis "to establish a number of probable causes of the seal failure."

One Soviet journalist reported two days after the disaster that the men died because they did not seal the landing craft's hatch properly. He said it jarred open slightly during the turbulence of the re-entry into the earth's atmosphere.

The cosmonauts—Georgy Dobrovolsky, Vladislav Volkov and Viktor Patsayev—spent 23 days aboard the Salute space laboratory before returning to earth. On July 2, their ashes were entombed in the Kremlin wall, the traditional burial place of Soviet heroes.

The commission's announcement, reported by the official news agency Tass, said: "On the ship's descent trajectory, 30 minutes before landing, there occurred a rapid drop of pressure within the descent vehicle, which led to the sudden deaths of the cosmonauts."

"This is confirmed by the medical and pathological-anatomic examination. "The drop of pressure resulted from a loss of the ship's sealing."

By ruling out structural failure, the commission's report implied that the cosmonauts had erred in some way. In an article published while the spacemen were aboard the orbiting Salute lab, veteran cosmonaut Vladimir Shatalov warned that prolonged exposure to weightlessness sometimes caused "a false feeling of complacency."

"The psycho-physiological capabilities of the cosmonauts' organism drop as the flight nears completion," he said. "Thus it is very important for them to automatically perform the operations necessary for piloting the ship, for descent and landing."

Infant Killed by Auto

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP) — Karen Faye Wolff, 17-month-old daughter of Mrs. Sara Wolff of near Harrisburg, was killed Sunday night when run over by a car at her grandparents' home near here.

Police said the child was playing in the driveway when she was run over by a rear wheel of a car driven by Jacob H. Walls, 35, of Harrisburg.

Millions of Fish Killed by Red Tide

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Two giant oil spill booms were stretched across the entrances to two bays here Sunday to stop tons of dead fish killed by the Red Tide from being dumped ashore.

Two more booms will be brought in from Jacksonville and Miami today after state officials decided at a strategy meeting Sunday to adopt the same methods used last year to clean up after the Delian Apollo tanker oil spill.

Lloyd Dove, city public works administrator, said the booms "gather the fish carcasses together in one central spot and hold them until our fleet of shrimp boats gets to the scene and scoops them up."

Dove said the city had 17 miles of coastline in Tampa Bay to protect, but if the fish got into the bays there would be 100 miles of coastline to clean up.

The Red Tide is an uncontrollable microscopic organism traced back to 208 B.C. that discolors water and kills fish.

The latest outbreak started on the state's lower Gulf Coast and worked northward more than 100 miles to the entrance of Tampa Bay. Officials said the outbreak is the worst in 24 years.

A temporary fish cleanup headquarters was set up as the state moved to help St. Petersburg clean up the massive fish kill.

Harmon W. Shields, director of the state Division of Marine Resources, was to organize the operations of Florida Marine Patrolmen arriving from all over the state.

Randolph Hodges, director of the state Department of Natural Resources, left after a meeting with county and city officials to report on the situation to Gov. Reubin Askew.

Seven shrimp trawlers with about 325 men were working Sunday and a Public Works Department spokesman estimated they gathered up about 160 tons of dead fish.

Worried St. Petersburg hotelmen promised visitors "refunds" if any dead fish washed up on the beaches during their stay.

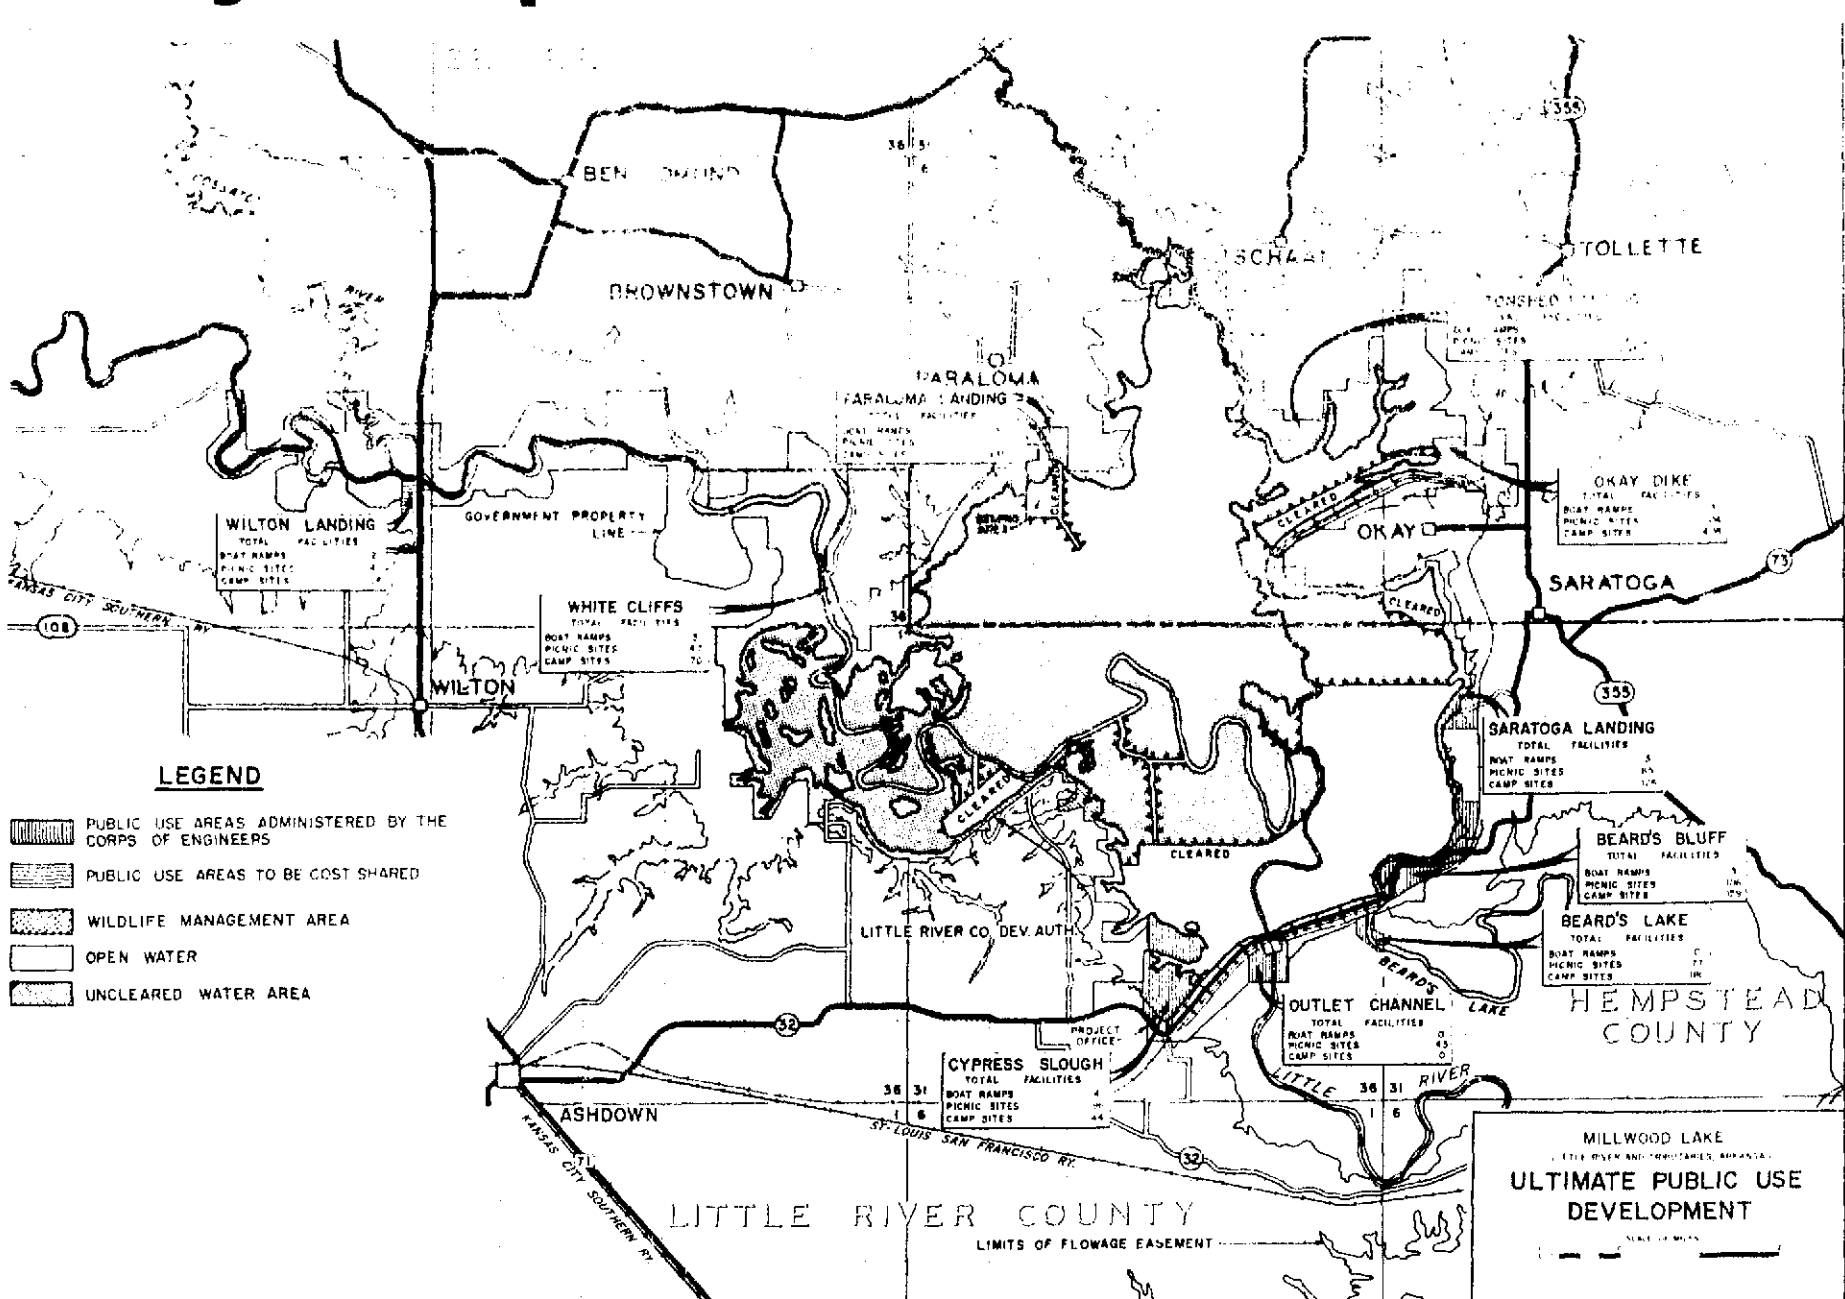

Tourist interests near Sarasota said Red Tide reports had crippled business even though the trouble had almost cleared up in that area.

U.S. PREPARES

Force gunships, converted from transport planes and armed with three types of heavy-fire guns and cannon, have accounted for about two-thirds of the more than 25,000 North Vietnamese supply trucks reported destroyed or damaged in Laos since last Nov. 1.

The North Vietnamese supply effort is hampered by current heavy rains along the trail, but Hanoi is expected to crank up a big new supply push when dry weather returns in the fall.

U.S. authorities are especially concerned about stemming any heavy flow of arms or ammunition from North Vietnam to Communist troops in the South during the coming dry season.

American combat strength in Vietnam will be reduced so far by then that remaining U.S. troops, principally in base areas, will be vulnerable if the enemy should attack in force.

The Air Force had gunships in action earlier this year, but the number is slightly smaller now because some are being refitted to improve their ability to detect and hit enemy trucks at night and in all kinds of weather.

The plan is to convert six later-model C130E transports, bringing the total of this type of gunship to about 18 flying out of Thailand by fall.

The gunships throw a huge volume of fire. Aimed out of side pots, their miniguns spew from 3,000 to 6,000 rounds a minute, another pair of 20-millimeter Gatling guns discharge about 2,500 rounds a minute, and a 40-millimeter cannon shoots 120 shells a minute at targets on the ground.

Republicans Won't File Suit

SEARCY, Ark. (AP) — The state Republican party apparently will not file suit challenging multimember legislative districts adopted recently by the state Board of Apportionment.

Odell Pollard of Searcy, who heads a group of lawyers looking into the possibility of a suit said Sunday night he would recommend to state GOP chairman Charles Bernard of Earle that a suit not be filed against the apportionment plan on the basis of multimember districts. "After researching the matter, we came to the conclusion that it would be next to impossible to attack the plan on the basis of multimember districts," Pollard said.

Pollard said in view of a recent U.S. Supreme Court ruling upholding multimember districts in Indiana, it would not be possible to get the multimember districts in Arkansas invalidated.

He said, however, that if the GOP could prove that a "heavy-black-vote area in a particular county had been sliced up, the apportionment plan could be vulnerable to attack."

Pollard mentioned West Memphis and Desha County where black districts had been split. "I feel, at this time, however, we do not anticipate a lawsuit challenging the plan," Pollard said.

Bomb Thrown in Mayor's Front Yard

CORNING, Ark. (AP) — An investigation was continuing today into an explosion that damaged the home and car of Corning Mayor E. W. Cochran.

State Police Trooper Jim Snyder said the explosion, which occurred Saturday night, was apparently caused by a concussion grenade tossed from a passing vehicle.

Snyder said Cochran was in St. Louis and no one was at home at the time of the explosion. No one was injured.

Officers said the explosive device apparently landed in Cochran's front yard near the rear of his car.

Two Killed on Highways

Coyne Celebrates 1st Mass

NEW YORK ZAP) — A young priest who was refused ordination in St. Louis by John Cardinal Carberry has celebrated his first mass in his home parish here.

The Rev. John Francis Coyne, 25, celebrated the mass at St. Kevin's Roman Catholic Church in the Flushing section of Queens Sunday. His mother and father were the first to receive communion.

One of a band of five who call themselves the "Mission Singers," the young priest and four fellow seminarians studying with the Montfort Fathers in St. Louis decided four years ago to set up the Contemporary Mission to serve the slums of that city.

But Cardinal Carberry refused to allow the missionaries to be ordained, saying he was "not disposed" to and "saw no need" for their inner city mission.

On May 11, the Mission Singers were ordained at Holy Apostles Seminary in Cromwell, Conn., by Bishop Peter K. Sarpog of the Kumasi Diocese in Ghana.

Despite their ordination, the cardinal forbade the five to celebrate mass in a St. Louis church on June 13.

The Rev. Coyne's colleagues celebrated their first masses in their home towns with the approval of the local bishops.

After his turn, the Rev. Coyne said his group was marked with "looseness."

"We write, we sing, we even live with the people we serve," he said. "We do many things differently, and some say these are not the best things for a priest to do. We see life as a challenge and we are not afraid of risks."

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

MEN'S LIBERATION—WHY PUT YOUR NECK IN A SLING?

Dear Helen:

If women can go braless, why can't men go necktieless? If women can wear hot pants and see-through blouses to "dress" restaurants and night clubs, why must we stay with the coat and tie routine?

Come on, men, fight for your rights! Burn your neckties, or facsimiles of same, like scarves. Open your shirts, shed your coats when it's hot, and assert your right to equality.—UP WITH MEN'S LIBERATION

Dear Up:

...And your slogan shall be, "Men: don't put your neck in a sling!" Or "Off the necktie!" Good luck!—H

Dear Helen:

I know that smoking is bad for your health, and I am one hundred percent for anyone who tries to lick the habit.

But deliver me from those so-called "quitters" who come to work smothered in righteousness, then burn smokes from everyone on the job!

This dud has been "trying to quit" for a year now, and that's exactly how long he has been hitting us lesser-paid employees for butts. He brags about how much money he makes and saves. Why not? When we pay for his habit!—FOR QUITTERS NOT MOOCHERS

Dear For:

Why don't you "help" the guy? When he asks for a smoke, tell him you'd be less than a friend if you contributed to his habit.—H

Dear Helen:

I'm the mother of four children, from three to six years old, including twins. I lost a baby who died just after he was born. I'm only 30, but worn out. My pregnancies are difficult, and the Pill has had side-effects for me. I couldn't cope with abortion and nothing else seems foolproof. Is there any way for me to have a hysterectomy when I don't need it for anything other than birth control?—MRS. T.Y.C.

P.S. My husband doesn't want any more children, but implies it's my problem, not his.

Dear Mrs. C.:

Why consider a hysterectomy when your doctor will tell you that a vasectomy for your husband is a minor operation, has no bad after effects, and often makes for a happier marriage because fear of pregnancy is gone, but potency remains.

For you, the operation would be a tubal ligation, which means tying the tubes, not removal of sex organs. New methods are making this a much simpler operation than formerly—but not as simple and painless as is a vasectomy for a man.—H

Dear Helen:

I've often wondered where all in 10 cities showed that prices in the Little Rock area were exceeded only by those at Honolulu.

The food editors of 10 metropolitan newspapers participated in the one-day food comparison shopping spree last month. The food editors were given a list of 31 items, to purchase.

The total cost of the 31 items at chain supermarkets in the Little Rock area was $22.24 compared to an average cost for the 10 cities of $21.52. Honolulu was the highest with $23.07 and Tampa, Fla., was the lowest with a cost of $19.90.

the beatniks went when they got older? Remember the young "dropouts" of 20 years ago? Who ever heard of a middle-aged beatnik? Will the new breed of hippie also get assimilated and civilized (or maybe resigned to conformity)?—TIM

Time will tell, but I'm betting "conformity" will reach out and grab a goodly number of our young free-thinkers. Pity.... (Or, as columnist Wally Lagorio wrote recently in the Sacramento Bee: "Old hippies never die, they just disappear into thin air.")—H

Television and Radio

By JERRY BUCK

AP Television-Radio Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — After seven pilots for television, Marvin Kaplan is finally off the ground and flying with a new fall series.

His seventh pilot for a series, "The Chicago Teddy Bears," a spoof on the gangster era, was signed by CBS for a Friday night spot.

"It's the first pilot I've ever done that's sold," said Kaplan. "The pilot season here is like a horse race. It's much better to go to Santa Anita and try to win."

Kaplan was last in "Meet Millie" 15 years ago, but his squeaky voice, timorous manner and round face are known to millions through his movie roles and numerous guest appearances on television. He is the voice of Choo-Choo on the cartoon "Top Cat."

He plays the bookkeeper to a speakeasy owner whose establishment is the target of a mob takeover. That, in fact, will be the running theme of the series—how speakeasy owner Dean Jones keeps out of the mob's clutches.

"I think maybe one way to cope with violence is to laugh at it, and that's what we're trying to do," Kaplan said. "And it goes along with the trend toward nostalgia. You can't laugh at what's going on today—you have to go back to another era to laugh and to make your points."

Kaplan, a native of Brooklyn, got his start in films when Katharine Hepburn spotted him in a play at the Circle Theater in Los Angeles. That led to a role in "Adam's Rib," and to such movies as "I Can Get It For You Wholesale," "The Reformer and The Redhead," and "Behave Yourself," in which he played a gangster with Sheldon Leonard.

He has written scripts for "Mod Squad" and "The Bill Cosby Show" and is active in little theater work. "I start to panic if I can't act," he said. "That's why I join so many groups. You can't practice acting by yourself."

He is one of the founders of the Players Ring Theater and is directing two one-act plays for Theater Rapport. He said, "One play is funny and one is sad. I'm not sure which is which because I laugh during the sad one."

Lutherans in Conflict Over Beliefs

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

AP Religion Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) —

The lines are drawn in the doctrinally strict Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod over whether it is going to enforce tighter conformity in beliefs.

As the biennial governing convention of the nationwide denomination went today into its third working day, forces were shaping up on both sides of the issue.

It was sketched by the church's president, the Rev. Dr. J. A. O. Preus, who maintained the Church has a right to "insist on unity in the interpretation of any Scripture passage."

Citing differences in views that exist on some Biblical accounts, such as on the historical actuality of Adam and Eve, the universal flood, some miracles, angels and the devil, he said:

"The question that has to be answered by this convention is whether we are willing to allow such matters—and many more—to be regarded as open questions on which we may take any position we wish."

"If we do not want this kind of latitude ... let us state clearly to all concerned that deviations from the official position of our Church must be dealt with and cannot be permitted."

Dr. Preus, who recently made a controversial investigation of the views of professors at the Church's Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, said he stands for a literal interpretation of the Bible accounts.

That is the position of conservative groups in the Church,

Revival at Nashville

A revival meeting is in progress at Southside Missionary Baptist Church at Nashville on Highway 4 at the corner of Russel and Hutchinson Streets. The Rev. Kenneth Myrick of Houston is the evangelist. who want its so-called "liberals" or "moderates" brought into line.

"It's just what we need," said Clarence Brunkhorst of O'Neill, Neb. "If there's no conformity in belief, we can't be effective."

But the Rev. Richard Koenig of Amherst, Mass., said that Dr. Preus, in effect, "is saying to all liberal Lutherans to shape up or ship out."

"Nobody in the synod's history has taken a harder line," he said.

The 2.8-million-member denomination, regionally named but with congregations in all 50 states, is the second largest and doctrinally the most precise of the three major Lutheran bodies in the country. Altogether, they total about nine million members.

Trevino Takes British Open

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer
SOUTHPORT, England (AP) — Lee Trevino headed for the Western Open in Chicago today with his reputation even higher than the triumvirate who have dominated world golf for a decade.

The "Big Three" still are regarded as Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and South Africa's Gary Player.

But when Trevino took the British Open Saturday, he added this ancient crown to the U.S. and Canadian titles that he's won in less than a month.

Palmer scratched from the British Open because he was upset by the way he was playing. Nicklaus finished the championship tied for fifth on a four round total of 283—five strokes off the pace set by Trevino, who had 278—14 under par.

Player was on stroke back of Nicklaus at 284.

"I'm the second Cassius Clay," Trevino whooped after leaving the Royal Birkdale course by the Irish Sea with the British crown under his belt.

By that he meant he was dominating golf the same way Muhammad Ali—Clay dominated the world heavyweight boxing scene.

Everyone here in the country that gave birth to golf agreed that Trevino now is the man to beat for any title.

Trevino, even bouncier than he normally is on the American circuit, nearly blew the British Championship with a disastrous 7 at the 71st hole. He was playing with virtually unknown golfer from Taiwan Liang Huan Lu.

At one state Trevino led Lu by five strokes, but suddenly the American's lead was cut to one shot going into the last hole.

Trevino kept his cool and carded a textbook birdie on the 72nd green to collar the championship. Roars of excitement echoed all over the sun-splashed links.

Tony Jacklin, Britain's former holder of the U.S. and British Opens, was in the clubhouse with a 72-hole score of 280.

At that stage there could have been a three-way tie involving Trevino, Lu and Jacklin. But the brash Mexican-American settled the issue with his birdie on the last hole.

Unitas Back Again This Year

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The pro football season wouldn't be the same without Johnny Unitas in action for the Baltimore Colts, the Super Bowl Champions. And the veteran 38-year-old quarterback doesn't intend to be on the sidelines if he can help it.

There was speculation that Unitas would miss the 1971 campaign because of an accident last spring when he ripped his right achilles tendon playing paddleball and underwent an operation.

But Unitas was one of the first on hand Sunday at the opening of the training season for the National Football League teams. He worked out at the Colts' camp at Western Maryland College in Westminster, Md., following a timetable set up by Baltimore trainers.

"We are not accepting John physically in camp, but we will count him on the roster," said Coach Don McCafferty who welcomed 26 rookies and 19 veterans to camp. McCafferty explained that otherwise Unitas would not be eligible to play until November.

The Cleveland Browns, San Diego Chargers, New Orleans Saints and Houston Oilers also opened camp. The other NFL clubs start later.

Nick Skorich, the new coach of the Browns, welcomed 21 rookies and 17 veterans at the Cleveland camp in Hiram, Ohio. Rain curtailed activities

Montreal Downed 11-5 by Phillies

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer
Deron Johnson was ready to start climbing walls, then he started hitting baseballs over them.

The slugging Philadelphia first baseman, who will be 32 Saturday, clouted home runs to right, center and left fields in his first three appearances Sunday and drove in five runs, powering the Phillies to an 11-5 victory over Montreal.

Coupled with the homer he hit in his last at-bat Saturday night, it gave Johnson four homers in a row, tying a major league record held by 16 other players. The last player to belt four consecutive homers was Oakland's Mike Epstein, who did it June 15-16.

The last National League to do it was the New York Mets' Art Shamsky, who did it with Cincinnati from Aug. 12-14, 1966. The three homers in one game were the first by a right-handed hitting Philadelphia player at home since Del Ennis did it on July 23, 1955.

Elsewhere in the National League Sunday, Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from the floundering New York Mets, 7-2 and 5-3; Chicago and San Diego split, the Cubs winning the opener 2-0 and the Padres taking the nightcap 7-5; Los Angeles trounced San Francisco 11-3; St. Louis trimmed Houston 7-3, and Atlanta at Pittsburgh was rained out.

In the American League, Minnesota beat Kansas City twice, 6-5 in 10 innings and 7-1; Milwaukee and Chicago divided a pair of 1-0 games; the Brewers winning the opener and the White Sox taking the nightcap; Oakland and California also split, the A's winning the opener 3-2 and the Angels grabbing the second game 6-3; Baltimore whipped Cleveland 7-1; Washington edged Detroit 4-3 in 10 innings, and New York nipped Boston 3-2.

Johnson, an notoriously slow starter, went to extremes early in the season. "I was one for forty-five at one stage," he said. "If I was a rookie or a guy who got all excited about things like that I'd be up a wall."

"I know I can hit," he added. "It's just a case of putting things together. I've always been a streak hitter. When I'm going bad, it's always because I'm trying to pull everything. If I hit where it's pitched, I can take it out of the park in all directions."

He did just that against the Expos. His first homer followed a single by Tim McCarver in the opening inning and hit off the left-center field scoreboard. The second came in the third after another single by McCarver and cleared the fence in right. And the third triggered a seven-run uprising in the sixth and left the park in dead center field.

It was the first time Johnson ever had hit three homers in a game. They increased his total for the season to 21 and his career total to 171.

In his next two at-bats, Johnson struck out, ending the sixth-inning rally, and he hit into a force play in the eighth.

Cincinnati's two victories extended the Mets' losing streak to six games and gave them 11 setbacks in their last 12 games. They also dropped New York 10 games behind first-place Pittsburgh in the East.

The Reds took the opener as Gary Nolan pitched a six-hitter and capped a six-run fifth inning with a two-run single. In the second game, Tony Perez drove in all five Cincinnati runs, the last three with his second homer of the contest and 14th of the season, a three-run blast off Tom Seaver in the eighth. Perez also had a solo homer in the second and a run-scoring single in the sixth.

The Cubs' Milt Pappas handcuffed San Diego on four hits in the opener after hurling hitless ball for six innings, while Johnny Callison drove in both Chicago runs with a sacrifice fly in the fourth and a homer in the seventh.

In the nightcap, Ivan Murrell and Ed Spiezio each collected three hits and two RBI as the Padres pounded four Chicago pitchers for 13 hits. The Cubs also trail Pittsburgh by 10 games and are one percentage point behind the Mets.

The Dodgers' victory over San Francisco ended their six-game losing streak and moved

Injuries Plague All-Stars

By LARRY PALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — On the stage the adage is "the show must go on."

For the baseball All-Star game the adage might be adjusted to read: "The show must go on but who said anything about the original cast?"

With the classic American League-National League confrontation in Detroit a day away injury alphas continue to force AL Manager Earl Weaver of Baltimore and NL Manager Sparky Anderson of Cincinnati to make adjustment to the 28-man rosters.

One thing is certain, or at least relatively certain, Oakland's 21-year-old pitching sensation Vida Blue will start for the host American Leaguers.

Weaver has already made the announcement, adding that Tiger Mickey Lolich, and his own Oriole hurlers Jim Palmer and Mike Cuellar also would likely see mound duty.

It wasn't certain whom Anderson would start, although Tom Seaver of the New York Mets and San Francisco's Juan Marichal were the likely choices.

Already four players from the original AL squad have been replaced due to injuries. There were no replacements in the NL until Sunday when it was reported that pitcher Larry Dierker of Houston was dropped because of an injury and replaced by teammate Don Wilson.

Also, Cincinnati Reds catcher Johnny Bench, who fans elected as a National's starter, said Sunday he might not be able to play because of a bruised left wrist suffered as a result of a foul tip in a game last week.

Elected players out of the AL lineup already are first baseman Boog Powell of Baltimore, outfielder Tony Oliva of Minnesota, and catcher Ray Fosse of Cleveland. Pitcher Sam McDowell of Cleveland, one of nine hurlers selected by Weaver, is also out and was replaced by knuckleballer Wilbur Wood of Chicago.

Despite the changes the lineups remain star studded.

Among the AL players are Boston's Carl Yastrzemski, Baltimore's Brooks and Frank Robinson, Detroit's Al Kaline, Washington's Frank Howard, Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew and New York's Bobb Murcer.

National League headlines include San Francisco's Willie Mays, who'll be appearing in his 22nd All-Star game; Hank BATTING — Deron Johnson, Phillies, slammed three consecutive homers, giving him four in a row over two games—tying a major league record—and drove in five runs, powering Philadelphia to an 11-5 victory over Montreal.

PITCHING — Milt Pappas, Cubs, held San Diego hitless for six innings and finished with a four-hitter as Chicago defeated the Padres 2-0 in the first game of a doubleheader.

It is the third time the annual exhibition has been held in Detroit and first in two decades. In 1951 the National League went away an 8-3 victor while in 1941 young Ted Williams of Boston clouted a three-run homer in the ninth for a 7-5 AL triumph.

The initial All-Star contest was at Chicago in 1933, won 4-2 by the Americans.

But the junior circuit lost the last eight in a row, which dropped its 41-game mark to 17-23-1. The one tie came in the second game in 1961 in Boston when rain halted the proceedings in the ninth with a 1-1 score. Two All-Star games were played in 1959 through 1962.

Baltimore 7-1 Over Cleveland

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
The only way anyone is going to catch the Baltimore Orioles is if their pitching collapses, says Manager Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees. Pat Dobson is doing his best to see it doesn't happen.

Dobson breezed to his 10th victory—and seventh in a row—Sunday as the Orioles exploded for six runs in the seventh inning and trounced Cleveland 7-1.

That enabled him to join Baltimore's corps of double-figure winners alongside Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally, who have won 13 apiece, and Jim Palmer, who has 12 triumphs.

Houk's Yankees did their best to destroy Boston over the weekend, sweeping three games from the Red Sox—Sunday's score was 3-2—and dropping them 5½ games behind the Orioles in the American League East. Elsewhere, Washington edged Detroit 4-3 in 10 innings, leaving the Tigers 7½ back.

In the AL West, Oakland boosted its spread to 11½ games by splitting with California—the A's took the opener 3-2, then dropped the nightcap 6-3—while Kansas City was losing a pair to Minnesota 6-5 in 10 innings and 7-1. Milwaukee and Chicago traded 1-0 decisions, the Brewers taking the first one.

In National League action, Cincinnati swept the New York Mets 7-2 and 5-3, Los Angeles whacked San Francisco 11-3, St. Louis trimmed Houston 7-3, Philadelphia thumped Montreal

Thompson, Harley May Shift to NBA

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Starting guards Harley "Skeeter" Swift and George Thompson of the American Basketball Association's Pittsburgh Condors last season may switch to the National Basketball Association this year.

Swift, who played college ball at East Tennessee and was drafted by the Milwaukee Bucks two years ago, has played out his contract at Pittsburgh and asked for a tryout in the Bucks' rookie camp, which begins Thursday.

Thompson, who played college ball at Marquette University in Milwaukee and was drafted by the Boston Celtics, said he has been approached by the Celtics and several other NBA clubs.

The Condors could raise objections to a move by Swift, who has averaged 9.2 and 13.4 points in the last two years, because of the reserve clause.

"The validity of the reserve clause remained to be seen, so we don't know what will happen," said Bucks' President Ray Patterson.

Thompson said a switch to the NBA "depends on what happens with my contract."

Monday, July 12, 1971

11-5 and the Chicago Cubs split with San Diego, winning 2-0 and losing 7-5.

Dobson and Cleveland's Ed Farmer were locked in a 1-1 tie through six innings but the Orioles jumped on Steve Hargan, 1-9, in the seventh.

Three walks, one intentional, loaded the bases with one out and Merv Rettenmund's scratch hit sent the lead run home. Brooks Robinson then cleared the bases with a double and Dave Johnson followed with a two-run homer.

The Yankees added to Boston's woes with their third straight late-inning triumph. Two-out singles by Roy White, Ron Blomberg and Thurman Munson in the eighth tied the score against Ray Culp and Gene Michael's single, a sacrifice and Horace Clarke's single won it in the ninth.

Meanwhile, Carl Yastrzemski and Reggie Smith answered back at fellow Boston outfielder Billy Conigliaro, who had accused them of wanting him benched in favor of Joe LaHoud. Conigliaro also said Yastrzemski was responsible for getting his brother Tony traded from Boston to California last winter. Tony quit the Angels Saturday, citing poor vision.

"I'm sick of all this," Yastrzemski said. "He is just alibiing for his lack of ability. I don't want to play with him any more. The club should take disciplinary action. If he doesn't want to play any more, let him go."

Tom McCraw tripled with two out in the 10th inning and scored on Dave Nelson's infield hit as the Senators nipped the Tigers. Following McCraw's triple, Frank Howard and Elliott Maddox were walked intentionally to load the bases. Nelson then grounded to shortstop Eddie Brinkman, but Maddox beat his throw to second trying for a force play.

Norm Cash tied the score for Detroit in the eighth with his 20th homer, a two-run jolt.

Mike Epstein's two-run homer in the sixth brought Oakland from behind in its opener and Tommy Davis drove in the winning run with a pinch single in the eighth following an intentional walk to Rick Monday.

The Angels then piled up 5-0 lead in the nightcap, starting with three unearned tallies in the first inning following a leadoff error by second baseman Dick Green.

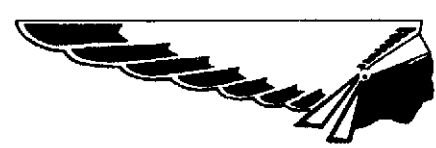

Rookie Jim Nettles' first major league homer in the 10th inning enabled the Twins to win their opener from the Royals, ending a six-game skid. Minnesota trailed 5-0 at one stage but finally caught up in the ninth on George Mitterwald's solo homer.

Nettles then cracked a two-run homer in the second inning of the nightcap and Ray Corbin hurled his first complete game. Cookie Rojas homered for Kansas City.

Milwaukee's Marty Pattin checked Chicago on four hits in the first game—John Morris came on to get the last out—and Ted Kubiak's eight-inning sacrifice fly drove in the only run. Wilbur Wood tossed a five-hitter for the White Sox in the second game and Ed Herrmann, just off the disabled list, homered in the fifth.

Rodriguez Dies in Race Crash

NUERNBERG, Germany (AP) — "A sad loss for racing and a sad loss for Mexico."

That was the reaction of British driver Graham Hill, two-time world champion, upon hearing of the death of Pedro Rodriguez Sunday in a crash during a European Interseries race at the Norisring.

Rodriguez, 30, died in Nuernberg Municipal Hospital two hours after the Ferrari he was driving blew a front tire, crashed into a wall and burst into a sheet of flames.

Ironically, the car Rodriguez was driving was not even his own. Rodriguez had taken over a 5-liter Ferrari 513M owned by Herbert Mueller because the 8.1-liter BRM167 Canam officially entered for him was not ready. It was the racing debut of the 750-horsepower Ferrari, which crashed on the 12th lap of the 200-mile race won by Chris Craft of England.

Rodriguez almost quit racing nine years ago when his brother, Ricardo, also a prominent Formula 1 driver, was killed at the age of 20 in a crash during practice for the Mexican Grand Prix. But the lure of the track proved too great.

His first Grand Prix victory came in 1968 in South Africa. He has been the No. 1 BRM Formula 1 team driver since 1968, and was third in world driving championship standings this year.

Blalock Wins Ladies Tourney

By RALPH BERNSTEIN Associated Press Sports Writer HORSHAM, Pa. (AP) — Everything worked for Janie Blalock Sunday—even the weather.

The 25-year-old Miss Blalock won the $25,000 George Washington Ladies Golf Classic by two strokes over JoAnne Carner with a 54-hole total of 11 under par 208. She posted rounds of 68-72-68.

Before she retired Saturday night, Miss Blalock hoped for an overcast day with not too much humidity. She had suffered a stroke after Friday's first round, and a doctor told her to stay out of the sun for three days.

Not only did it turn out overcast and cool, but it rained throughout the final 18 holes at the Hidden Springs Country Club. "I was relieved that it was an overcast day," said Miss Blalock after her final round five under par 68 made her a winner for the first time this year and the second since

Rotarian Garland Medders presented "We Three Kings," a singing group of young evangelists who were appearing at the First Baptist Church, in a musical program at the Hope Rotary Club meeting Friday, July 9 at the Town and Country. With beautiful harmony Skip Dean, Mark Sutton, and Jim Paul sang "Love Is Surrender," "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand," "Getting Ready Today" and "I Believe in a Hill Called

Conigliaro Has Now Retired

BOSTON (AP) — Tony Conigliaro, claiming that the eye which was hurt severely in 1967 is failing again and that he feels "on the edge" of losing his mind, has retired from baseball.

The once-feared slugger, who starred for the Boston Red Sox until traded to California last October, announced his decision on the West Coast Saturday and then flew home to Boston.

"This is the end of Tony C.—I've learned that health is more important than money," he told a couple of sports writers who were on hand for his arrival, along with his mother and father and young brother, Richie. "I just can't see the ball," the 26-year-old outfielder said. "I have no depth perception in the left eye at all. I have a blind spot."

"This was no sudden decision. I've been thinking about retiring for some time."

Later Tony's mother told The Associated Press:

"I knew Tony was playing with a blind spot. The doctors told him there was nothing they could do. It's a miracle he did so well ... I'm kind of relieved that he's retired. Tony said it feels like 100 pounds has been lifted from him."

Signed by the Red Sox after a great schoolboy career in the Boston area, Conigliaro spent only one season in the minors before joining the parent club and hitting 24 homers in 1964.

He led the league with 32 homers the next year, hit 28 in 1966 and 20 in 1967 when he was hit by a pitch in August. The injury affected his eye, keeping him out of action for the rest of that season and all of 1968. It had apparently ended his career.

He staged a remarkable recovery in 1969, however, surprising even his physicians by playing regularly and hitting 20 homers. Last year he had the best slugging total of his career with 36 homers and 116 runs batted in, but this year with the Angels he has had nothing but trouble.

Hitting only .229 with four homers and 15 RBI, Tony went 0-for-8, striking out five times, and was ejected after a heated argument with umpires in the Angels' 1-0 loss in 20 innings at Oakland Friday night.

A few hours later he made his retirement announcement, telling newsmen: "I have lost my sight and am on the edge of losing my mind."

Spurs Lose to Travs; 8-2 Score

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers, behind two home runs in the fifth inning by Jorge Roque and Danny Napoleon, defeated the Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs 8-2 at Arlington Sunday night before a record crowd of 16,107 in Trun-pike Stadium.

The Spurs had ended a nine-game winning streak by the Travelers Saturday night. The Travelers have now won 13 of their last 16 contests, and stand 8-1 on the road trip.

Last night's victory puts the Travelers five and one-half games in front of Shreveport in the Central Division of the Dixie Association standings.

In other Dixie play Sunday, Amarillo split with Memphis, 3-2 and 10-0; Charlotte blanked Columbus, 1-0; Savannah overwhelmed Asheville, 12-2; Jacksonville downed Montgomery, 4-2; Shreveport swept San Antonio, 5-1.

Conversely, it required ex-stock car driving great Junior Johnson, now a car builder, only three races to put his independently-financed Chevrolet into victory circle in Dixie stock car racing.

The Johnson Chevy, driven by Indiana hot shot Charlie Grotzbach, won the Volunteer 250 mile Grand National race at Bristol, Tenn., Sunday, finishing three laps ahead of defending champion Bobby Allison in a Ford.

It was the first triumph for a Chevrolet in the elite Grand National ranks in more than six years. And it came just under two years after the Ford and Chrysler factories cut back on their stock car racing budgets—and joined General Motors as interested onlookers.

Revson, who joined the heavily endowed McLaren team as No. 2 driver at state start of the season, wheeled his Gulf-orange machine to an easy victory at Road Atlanta, finishing some 20 seconds ahead of versatile teammate Denis Hulme of New Zealand.

While it was Revson's first Can-Am triumph, it was McLaren's 31st in five years while garnering four championships in the $1 million series. It also was the second 1-2 finish for McLaren this year

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB Life Style Can Cause Problems

Healthy Hearts Beat Slower

Dr. Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—My heart beats about 92 times a minute, without exertion. When I first get up in the morning it is 125 beats a minute. How far from normal is this and is it unusual or damaging to my heart?

Dear Reader—That is too fast. Commonly we say the resting heart rate in adults should not be more than 100 a minute. However, a truly resting heart rate in a healthy person with no bad habits and in good physical condition is much lower. On awakening in the morning without anything to stress an individual the resting heart rate should be around 70 beats a minute or even slower. During the night, healthy young men monitored during experiments have rates as slow as 40 beats a minute.

In testing several thousand men with a moderate three-minute exercise, most of them had heart rates less than 100 beats a minute. While lying down immediately after the exercise, many of them had rates below 80 beats a minute.

There are several things that increase the heart rate without exercise and none of them are really good on a long-term basis. Tobacco, coffee or other stimulating drinks in excess can do it. Lack of exercise and obesity go hand in hand and may account for faster heart rates and high rates after exercise. Anxiety can cause it.

Then there are a number of medical disorders, like an overactive thyroid gland, a real possibility in a person with a fast heart rate when he awakens in the morning. This all leads me to suggest that you should have a medical examination.

If you are smoking or drink a lot of coffee you might wish to quit first and see what happens. Otherwise, I'd go to the doctor at an early date and get a checkup. You might ask him to also evaluate your thyroid gland.

Dear Dr. Lamb—If a person has arthritis can a doctor tell that person he has only three or five years to live?

Dear Reader—In general it is not a very good idea to assume that a person has only a specific length of time to live with any illness. Patients have a habit of outliving such forecasts.

Simple arthritis by itself does not cause death. If there are complications like chest deformities that affect the expansion of the lungs and cause lung disease with heart disease then the problem becomes more life-threatening.

Certain related diseases that may develop can cause death and rarely the person with rheumatoid arthritis who also has a defect of a valve in the heart (aortic stenosis) has the prospect of sudden death. Complications of hormone therapy can, in their extreme form, cause death, particularly if other disease is present.

For the most part arthritis is a disabling, painful disease but it does not cause death by itself.

(NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Oswald: "While we were discussing lead-directing doubles a couple of weeks ago, we didn't get around to the Lightner slam double."

Jim: "The theory of this double, which was invented about the time I was born by Theodore A. Lightner, is that, when your opponents bid a slam under their own power, you won't get many chances to set them. Therefore, the double of a freely bid slam would call for an unusual lead."

Oswald: "Today's hand shows the Lightner slam double at its best. North and South reach a very sound contract of six spades. With normal defense, a heart will

Shane Gould Is Swimming Superstar

By ERIC PREWITT

Associated Press Sports Writer
SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP) — Shane Gould has concentrated on freestyle events because, "I got to enjoy the stroke the most as the years passed by."

Only 14 years have passed by—she'll be 15 in November—but in sports, performance transcends experience. And Shane Gould is now swimming's most spectacular performer.

She won all the women's freestyle events at the fifth Santa Clara International swimming meet, and almost left the pool Sunday owning world records in all four.

On the final day of the three-day meet, the blonde from Sydney came within 1 1/2 seconds of the 800-meter record, winning in 9:03.9. It was only the third time she'd tried the distance in competition.

She set a world record in the 400 meters Friday, a 4:21.2, to go with the 100 and 200-meter records she established less than three months ago in London.

Another Australian, 17-year-old Graham Windeatt, was the second biggest winner here. He

Jim: "Now, see what happens when East doubles. West knows that he is supposed to make an unusual lead. His normal lead would be his partner's suit. His next choice the unbid suit, clubs. The most unusual lead would have to be diamonds. The suit bid by dummy. He leads a diamond. East ruffs and the almost ironclad slam has been beaten."

Oswald: "This was a very safe Lightner double. The bidding had marked South with a singleton heart. In addition, East knew that his opponents had no place to run. It also shows the value of this bid. East and West have picked up 200 points instead of losing 1,430."

Chinese Are Building Road in Laos

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — New intelligence suggests Chinese road building in northern Laos is designed to bolster Peking's border defense and help Hanoi, rather than to aid Communist insurgents in Thailand and Burma.

China's aims in constructing the road network have been something of a puzzle to Western analysts since the project was begun about a half-dozen years ago.

The United States, anxious to avoid Chinese entry into the Indochina conflict, has kept its bombers from hitting the road and the thousands of Chinese working on it. But U.S. reconnaissance craft keep an eye on the project.

Reports on the Chinese construction during the just-completed dry season showed a slow down in construction, a stepup in antiaircraft defenses and near completion of a link to Dien Bien Phu in North Vietnam.

U.S. specialists say there has been no new construction at the lower end of the motorway, which still ends about 25 miles from the Mekong River.

An estimated 20,000 Chinese are working on the road, which leads down from the Chinese frontier in the direction of northeast Thailand.

Another 2,000 are said to have been assigned to air defenses along the road, bringing the antiaircraft contingent to about one-third the size of the total force. Antiaircraft guns were reported increased by a third, including modern radar-controlled weapons.

U.S. specialists conclude that the Dien Bien Phu link is designed to help North Vietnamese forces in northern Laos which hitherto have had no direct motor road connection with home supply bases.

New Party Supports Nader

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Consumer advocate Ralph Nader is being boosted for the 1972 presidential race by organizers of the New Party. And, the organizers are in Oklahoma urging young people between 18 and 21 years to help them.

Representatives of the New Party are in Oklahoma city to organize a state chapter. Already, there are chapters in 39 states, a party spokesman has indicated. The party was organized in 1968 after the Democratic National Convention at Chicago.

Oran Lindquist, of Miami, Fla., a spokesman for the party, says the New Party wants to tackle pollution and racism.

"Progressive people who are concerned about these things have no place to turn. The established parties have become part of the problem, not a part of the solution," he said.

Lindquist believes Nader can win most of the youth vote and

L. League All Stars Announced

Little League All-Star players were announced Friday night. They are: David Sisson, Richard Wilson, Larry Rhodes, Keith Cummings, Joe Williams, Bruce Huddleston, Charles Harris, Carl Lindsey, Dick Harris, Wayne East, Edwin Connelly, Dennis Bilbo, Darren Sanders, and Lynn Ames. Alternates are Mark Dillard and Britt Henry. Coaches for the All-Stars are Danny Joyce and Harley Sisson.

The district tournament, which Hope will play in, will be held in Arkadelphia on Monday, July 19. The winner of that tourney and the winner of the Monticello tourney will play in the final to be held here in Hope on Friday, July 23.

The Sheriff's team was selected as the top team this season with 13 wins and no losses.

In Friday night's action Barry's was downed 10-0 by Sheriff's. In the second game James Motor Co. ran over Hope Auto 12-8. CBC's were smashed by the Lions with a score of 6-1.

the presidential election if he'll decide to run. Nader has said he won't make the race.

"But he's saved the American consumer millions of dollars and saved lives through his work on unsafe cars and in goods and drugs. We're hoping he'll decide to go political," Lindquist said.

Yablonski's Son Accuses Labor Dept.

By JANET STAIHAR
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)

Eighteen months after his father's murder, Kenneth Yablonski accused the Labor Department today of standing aside while the United Mine Workers, he said, continues to steal elections away from the will of its members.

"Something has to be done to stop this outright and brazen stealing of votes," Yablonski, son of the slain United Mine Workers official Joseph A. Yablonski, said.

He testified before a Senate Labor subcommittee investigating alleged irregularities in the UMW.

Six months after a UMW election in Pennsylvania's District 5, Yablonski said, "the best we can expect from the Department of Labor is to set aside the election."

Accusing the Labor Department and the Senate of inaction on behalf of the miners, Yablonski said the average man in the coal fields of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio thinks he has been forgotten by ball official levels in Washington.

Church Committee in Red

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The committee that agreed to pick up the tab for the recent National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress at Little Rock is in the red for more than $18,000.

The Rev. C. B. Knox Jr., pastor of Canaan Missionary Baptist Church, the host church for the Congress, explained the committee's financial plight Saturday. He urged the Little Rock "city fathers" to persuade the Little Rock School Board to forego the $3,336 rent for Central High School where many of the Congress' classes were held.

The Rev. Mr. Knox said the debt would be reduced to about $10,000 if the committee collects anticipated revenue and the payment of the rent is absorbed.

He said the committee plans to hold a program at Barton Coli-

Sol Estes Is Now a Free Man

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer
EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Smiling and embracing his family, former Texas fertilizer financier Billie Sol Estes sped off a free man today from the La Tuna Federal Correctional Institution.

Estes had served more than six years of a 15-year prison term for fraud in connection with a nonexistent fertilizer storage tank empire which netted millions and created a nationwide scandal.

Estes left the federal prison at 12:03 a.m., seated in the back seat of a private car with his wife, Patsy, and one of their blonde teen-age daughters.

Estes ignored the small cluster of waiting newsmen and seum to help the debt.

He said bills totaling $10,660 have already been paid and that the largest unpaid bill is $7,201 for printing the souvenir programs.

photographers huddled at the prison gates.

Later, the Estes car, driven by son Billie Sol Jr., eluded pursuers near the campus of the University of Texas at El Paso, 20 miles from the prison. Warden W. E. Zachem, who earlier described the onetime promoter-farmer-preacher as a model prisoner, said Estes requested a "private dismissal."

Estes, 46, said previously he would live with his wife and family in Abilene and work on a farm owned by a brother, John Estes.

Under terms of his parole, he "shall not engage in any self-employment or promotional type activity" without approval of the U.S. Parole Board.

Estes was convicted at El Paso in 1963 of seven counts of mail fraud and assessed a 15-year prison sentence. He entered the federal institution at Leavenworth, Kan., in March 1965.

He was transferred in December 1966 to the minimum security facility in Sandstone, Minn., and was brought to La Tuna in April 1970.

Estes amassed a paper fortune worth millions before his arrest by federal agents in March 1962.

No Relief for Warm, Humid Air

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
No relief is in sight for the warm, humid air over Arkansas, and the possibility of widely scattered afternoon thunder showers remains in the forecast.

A warm high-pressure ridge aloft that is drifting slowly eastward over the southern Rocky Mountains may bring warmer air aloft across the state by Wednesday, reducing the chance of rainfall.

Thundershower activity Sunday in Arkansas mainly was restricted to the northern half of the state, with Boknburg in the north-central section receiving 1.25 inches and Fayetteville .75 of an inch.

Afternoon highs Sunday again were a little cooler in the north. Harrison reported a relatively mild 83 degrees while Texarkana was the hot spot with 99. Other high readings were generally in the low to mid 90s.

Overnight lows around the state include Fayetteville 68, Harrison 68, Jonesboro 72, Pine Bluff 77, Texarkana 76, El Dorado 71, Memphis 73, Little Rock 75 and Fort Smith 73. Rainfall reports for the 24-hour period ended at 7 a.m. today included .75 of an inch at Fayetteville and .01 at Memphis.

Many Visit Arkansas River

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Little Rock District Corps of Engineers says 141,909 persons visited the recreation areas on the Arkansas River navigation system in Little Rock District during the Fourth of July weekend. The figure was an increase of 120 per cent compared to the figure for the 1970 Fourth of July weekend.

The Engineers said a record 1.1 million persons visited the eight Corps lakes and the recreation areas on the Arkansas River during the holiday weekend.

Correctional System Praised

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California's correctional system is one of the most admired in the world partly because it focuses on "rewarding good behavior rather than punishment of bad behavior," Atty. Gen. Evelle Younger told the graduating class of Southwestern University's law school.
